

Ernest Lewis

Ernie has been a member of the Board and the Excelerate Foundation since its inception, serves as its Secretary and served for many years on the board of its predecessor nonprofit organization.

Ernie is an ordained priest and serves as an Associate Priest at St. Martin's Episcopal Church in Davis, California. Ernie serves on the boards of several philanthropic and cultural nonprofit organizations in the Sacramento/Davis area.

Ernie was a member of the faculty of the School of Medicine at Emory University for many years and later, until his retirement in 2001, of the University of California, Davis, School of Medicine. The author of publications in medical education, Clinical urology and basic research, Ernie is Emeritus Professor of Clinical Urology and Emeritus Associate Dean for Medical Education and Student Affairs at the University of California, Davis School of Medicine.

Ernie received the A.B. degree from California State University in Fresno and the M.D. degree from Washington University in Saint Louis. He completed his post-graduate training at Emory University in Atlanta and is certified by the American Board of Adult and Pediatric Urology, is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and a member of Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society.